

Great Location - Family Living!

Welcome to this large family home located in the sought-after area of Sippy Downs Estate. When location is important, you come across a home like this, in a quiet street with park, walking track and fresh water lake access, your lifestyle needs will be well satisfied.

With great street appeal and built on an 800m2 block, you are invited inside to a home that offers both separation and open plan living. At the front of the home is a lounge area adjoining the master bedroom complete with spa bath in the ensuite. The modern kitchen centralizes the home with large meals plus dining area with access to the underroof alfresco area and landscaped garden.

At the back of the home you will find a large tiled family room with bar looking out to the sparkling inground saltwater pool and separate grassed area with kids' playhouse/swing and garden shed.

Designed with family in mind, the other side of the home is separated by the hallway which leads to 3 more bedrooms all with built in robes, the family bathroom with separate toilet and laundry. This side of the home can also be entered through access from the large double garage.
